Welcome New Caregivers!

Madison Duran

Madison is an Occupational Therapy student at College of St. Mary. She loves playing and watching any types of sports. She has been a caregiver for almost 2 years now and enjoys building relationships with each and every person. She loves working with children because they are inspiring and passionate about their creative minds.

Emma Boyd

Emma graduated from UNO in 2022 and is currently works at Countryside Community Church with children aged 0-18yrs old providing child care and education and works part time with Special Sitters. She enjoys getting to know each child's unique interests and needs. She wants to work with families, so that she can be a part of their support group.

Christina Imus

Christina will be providing care to her niece in the Lincoln area, where she lives. Christina attended UNL and majored in Chemistry, but she currently has a full-time career in Libraries. She has been providing care for her niece who has Spina Bifida for over 10 years. Christina loves being there for her niece and seeing her grow up.

Proud to Be Me

Free Dance Therapy Classes for Children with Developmental Disabilities!

This dance class is designed for elementary and middle schoolers with any intellectual, developmental, or sensory impairments! Our beginner-level dance and movement classes currently take place through Zoom and provide a fun outlet for children to let out energy and meet new people. The free class is also designed to help refine and improve things like motor skills, concentration, social/communication abilities, and general happiness.
